

Statistics on UK phone use have today revealed that fewer business calls are made on a Friday than any other working day in the week.

The statistics also show that business phone use reaches its daily peak in the morning.

The figures track over five million calls made by 13,000 business users of internet phones, a rapidly-growing means of communication by small businesses.

The findings

Day

Usage (%)

Monday

18.3%

Tuesday

20%

Wednesday

19.9%

Thursday

19.5%

Friday

17.4%

Weekend

4.9%